RE: In re Purdue Pharma, L.P., No. 24-CV-7042 (CM);
Opening Brief Deadline 3-Day Extension Request

Dear Judge McMahon:

I have been informed by Appellees' counsel that I misinterpreted their degree of consent to the letter-motion for an extension I filed earlier this afternoon. I had informed debtors counsel that I expected to seek only a 1-2 day extension of Maryland's reply, and interpreted counsel's (Mr. Vonnegut) reply "[t]hat's fine" in context as indicating a lack of concern with the timing of our reply.

After filing the letter-motion, however, I received an email from another member of Appellees' legal team (Mr. Shinbot) indicating that the consent is only for an extension of the reply until Monday, November 10, 2024, unless the hearing is rescheduled until at least November 18, 2024.

In light of this development, again, if it does not inconvenience the Court, the State of Maryland requests that it be permitted to file any reply brief on Sunday, November 10, 2024. The revised schedule would become:

Event	Current Schedule	New Schedule
Appellant's Opening Brief	October 25	October 28
Appellees' Response	November 4	November 7
Appellants' Reply	November 8	November 10
Hearing	November 14	November 14

MEMO ENDORSED

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Brian EdmundsBRIAN T. EDMUNDS (pro hac vice)

Counsel:

I really only need see the

briefs you have no doubt filed with Judge Lare. Waste as little of your time and your client's money as possible on this. The schedule is fine. The hearing will be at 11 AM on 11/14
